NASCAR Champion Terry Labonte will Tour Texas for Ronald McDonald Houses

“Terry Labonte Tour of Texas” will raise awareness for Ronald McDonald Houses around the state!

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (05/04/07) – Terry Labonte and his Roam for a Home Foundation announces the “Terry Labonte Tour of Texas”.

Corpus Christi native, Terry Labonte will once again take to the highways of Texas on two wheels in a motorcycle charity event. His annual “Roam for a Home” behind him for 2007, he wanted to do something that would benefit more Ronald McDonald Houses in the great state of Texas. The Terry Labonte Tour of Texas will take nine days and travel from Corpus Christi to Galveston, to Houston, to Temple, to Ft. Worth, to Amarillo, to Lubbock, to El Paso, to Austin, to San Antonio, to Harlingen, then return to Corpus Christi where it all began.

The Tour will depart Corpus Christi on Saturday, June 2, 2007 and return to Corpus Christi on June 10, 2007. The Terry Labonte Tour of Texas will travel approximately 3,000 miles from start to finish.

The Terry Labonte Roam for a Home Foundation website, www.roamforahome.org, has a page dedicated to the Terry Labonte Tour of Texas and provides the Tour schedule and contact information. The website lists the contact information for each city.

The Tour is designed around events planned by Ronald McDonald Houses in each of the cities the Tour will visit. Each event will be different, with the main theme centered around raising awareness for each House visited. The Tour will give Terry and the Tour riders the opportunity to visit with families and staff of each House.
